THEATRES-CONTINUED

Monday: "Dangerous Pleasure," on Tuesday, and "It Is The Law" on Wednesday.

The big attraction for next Thursday and Friday will be the "Cruelies of Life." The story tells of a man's struggle to find happiness and contentment after he has broken down from overwork. His search leads him into many curious situations, including humor and pathos in strange combinations, and culminating in a series of dramatic situations that make the production one of unusual interest. The picture includes many thrilling scenes, a drop of a cliff, and characters entangled by the ring life in a cave. The leading stars are Pearl Marmont, Marguerite de la Motte and Olla Harris.

THE STAR
Emory Johnson's "Life's Greatest Game" will be shown at the Star Theatre this Saturday. It is a heart-breaking drama with a wide human appeal, including in its last action scene a monumental event as the sinking of the trans-Atlantic liner "Titanic." The vivid portrayal of character and incident make this the biggest of the Johnson pictures. Johnnie Walker is Pearl White.

Pearl White will be featured in "Pearl White in 'The Country Kid'." It is a picture of a daredevil stunt, with Miss White this time seen in the very scene of Paris, where she makes a sensational escape through the fast-rushing waters.

"Glorious Lovers" will be shown on Monday at the Star Theatre.

"The Country Kid" is the feature of the Star Theatre this Saturday.

"The Adventures of Abraham Lincoln" will be presented on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. This photo-drama was more than two years in the making and at times as many as a hundred people appear in the cast. It deals with the life of Lincoln from his birth, through his boyhood, the presidency and the strife of the Civil War, depicting the surrender of Lee and shows life in Washington after the war.

The outstanding episodes in the life of Lincoln have been traced fully together in "The Country Kid," gripping entertainment, that possesses much humor, frequent touches of pathos, and a story that thrills beyond measure. George B. Seitz, the famous director, will be given for school children on Monday at 3:30.

"The Country Kid" will be shown on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The picture will be the Wednesday feature. Richard Barthelmess will be shown in "Classmates" on Thursday and Friday. It is a West Point picture with the entire student body of the Academy participating.

THE CASINO
Buck Jones will be seen at the Casino Theatre Saturday in "Winners Take All," a prize fight feature.

Jack Hodge in "Fly the Hawk" will be the special on Sunday and Monday. This is a drama of the open space in which Jack has been "scout" and the Universal race riders in a series of thrills.

"The Dangerous Film" on Tuesday; Douglas MacLean in "Never Say Die," on Wednesday; William Fairbanks and Kira Novak in "The Bandits of Shanghai," a thrilling detective story of the underworld; and "The Lover's Knot" next Friday, are all big features.

THE OLYMPIA
A double program with Laurette Taylor and Pat O'Brien in "Happily Ever After" and "The Girl Who Came to Stay" will be the Olympia Theatre feature on Sunday and Monday.

K. R. T. Wins Two Of Three Games Played On Trip

K. R. T. Wins Two Games on Trip. Last Sunday morning the K. R. T. returned to St. Louis after a very successful trip through western Illinois. They landed at their summer camp at Cairo, Missouri and Carbondale, Mo. They played to large, enthusiastic cheering crowds. It is quite a feat for a young team to win away from home, especially in the winter. The K. R. T. has won two out of three games and it must be said that they did well. The enthusiasm in these small cities is exceptional. They love the game and there is nothing unimportant in the actions of other teams and audiences.

The first two games on the trip were played at Cairo, Mo. The K. R. T. won both games. In the first game, they defeated the Cairo team by a score of 10 to 2. In the second game, they defeated the Cairo team by a score of 10 to 2.

In the third game of the journey, the K. R. T. returned to St. Louis and played to a large crowd. They won the game by a score of 10 to 2.

Cardinals vs. K. R. T. Friday, January 24th.

A return game with the Cardinals at the Polo Grounds, New York, Jan. 24, promises to be the highlight of the season. The Cardinals are the defending champions and the K. R. T. is the defending champion. The game is expected to be a close one.
